

I own my own business. I spend a tremendous amount of time in my car -- sometimes as much as four hours per day. The traffice reports and local weather help me to plan and provide me critical information that helps me personally as well as my business. Leave XM alone. I shouldn't have to tune to a radio station and wait for this information. I should be able to get it when I want it!